THURSDAY

STONE CRABS: OUT ON AN ISLAND

Thu 20 Feb 18.15-21.00 Michael West Gallery

age 12+

Thurs ticket

'Out On An Island: Pride In Self, Pride In Place' is an exhibition to celebrate 20 years of LGBT History Month in the UK, presented by StoneCrabs' Out On An Island Project, at Quay Arts from Saturday February 15 to Wednesday March 26 2025

Highlights include: the striking LGBT Memorial Quilt inspired by the AIDS Memorial Quilt, created by the Isle of Wight community; the IW LGBT+ Trail Map highlighting everyday lives and notable figures who shaped our community.

IW COLLEGE PERFORMING ARTS & PINK COW THEATRE: STREET ART DRAMA

Thu 20 Feb 18.30-20.00 Seminar Room

age 12+

Thurs ticket

Students & theatre are working together to devise a performance on the theme of gang activity in the UK. It shows how easy it is for young people to be swept up into gang activity, without even realising it, and what the consequences are.

This snapshot precursor to the stage production of Brutal will take place in the setting of the Street Art exhibition, produced by the IW College Art students. Drop in.

ALEX SABINE: WORD SOUP – AI EXPLORATION

Thu 20 Feb 18.30-19.30 Rope Store

age 12+

Alex will explore the value of AI for the humanities, focusing specifically on the emergence of Large Language Models and the implications for our understanding of words, meanings and the human condition itself. The session will encourage participants to reflect on innovative uses of the technology for developing self-insights, characterisation, enriching experiences and other novel uses of AI as a linguistic tool.

Thurs ticket

PINK COW THEATRE & IW COLLEGE: BRUTAL

Thu 20 Feb 20.00-20.45 Theatre with Q&A after 21.00-22.00 Theatre

age 12+

If walls could talk they would have many stories to tell. 'Brutal' focuses on a house and its occupants. We examine why people get attracted to gangs, what the gang offers them and what it means to be in a gang. Suitable for an audience of 12+ years, we sensitively tackle one of the biggest issues facing young people today using the theatrical techniques of Brecht to inform and entertain.

Thurs ticket

IW COLLEGE ART DEPT: STREET ART LIVE!

Thu 20 Feb 18.30-20.30 Seminar Room

The IW College art department have developed an exhibition of street art. The students have responded to the work of other street artists and explored different techniques, showcasing their work on the walls in the Seminar Room. They have utilised their practical skills, communicated their ideas, investigated and researched and finally developed their own ideas and processes.
